Mitigating Risk

Hi %FIRSTNAME%,

I saw that TechCorp hasn't updated its cybersecurity strategy in the past year.

While I don't want to ring any unnecessary alarm bells, I think you're risking your company's long-term data security.

Here's the first thing I'd do: implement multi-factor authentication across all platforms.

If you'd like to hear the next steps, let me know.

Best,

Celi.
